6. WITNESSES

- 6.1 The MCS will provide the witnesses to the participating teams. The witnesses will be generally briefed and assigned by the MCS. However, each team will have an opportunity to specially brief their witnesses. The witnesses to be briefed will be assigned to each team prior to the commencement of the respective rounds. All the participating teams will ensure that the witnesses depose only in English Language.
- 6.2 It is mandatory for the Prosecution and the Defence to examine ALL the witnesses and dropping a witness will result in loss of marks. However, the order in which witnesses are to be examined shall be determined by the concerned team taking examination in chief.
- 6.3 The team conducting examination in chief of their witnesses or the team cross-examining the witnesses will desist from arguing with the witnesses.
- 6.4 It will be the responsibility of the participating teams to brief the concerned witnesses on the mode and manner of tendering relevant documents, i.e. the Annexures and the Exhibits attached with the Trial Problem.

7. EXHIBITS

The Participants are required to prove the Recovery Panchnama (by Prosecution) and the Jeweller's Bill (by Defence). Participants are put on notice that 15 marks are specially assigned for this purpose.

The prosecuting teams should be proficient in knowing the mode and manner of proving a Recovery Panchnama under Sec. 23(2) BSA and take in evidence only that portions of the Panchnama which are admissible under law. The prosecuting teams will be required to point out the admissible portions of the Panchnama to the Judges.

The prosecution team will also be required to know how to prove the recovered property i.e. the gold chain through the relevant witness. The sealed parcel containing the gold chain shall be handed over to the prosecution teams before each round.

13th Nyayaavalokan Trial Advocacy and Judgment Writing Competition, 2024-25

The defence teams will be required to prove the Jeweller's Bill as given in the Trial Proposition and must know who is the correct defence witness through which the same may be proved.

The opposing teams must know how to take proper objections at the right time along with the reason for objecting, as provided under the BSA. This will be taken into consideration by the Judges when allotting marks for judging the ability to conduct examination-in-chief and cross-examination.

N.B. As required under Sec. 105 Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, the participants will not challenge that the recovery proceedings and every panchnama as mentioned in the Trial Proposition were recorded by audio-video electronic means and the participants shall not ask that the same be produced.

8. DRESS CODE

Advocates attire (including neckband and gown) is compulsory. Participants are expected to make their own arrangements regarding the same. Not abiding by the said rule can lead to direct disqualification and the MCS will have complete discretion regarding the same.

9. ANONYMITY AND SCOUTING

9.1 Student Counsel may introduce himself/herself to the court in the usual manner and may also state their speaker code. However, the team's college name shall not be indicated to the Judges at any time.

9.2 Further, all team members/coaches/advisors/observers shall refrain from identifying any team's law school/college/university at any time and in any manner, including but not limited to wearing any identifying items (such as college clothing, ties, patches or pins) or carrying identifying material (such as books with a college logo or seal etc.).
